

SIX-TIME WORLD CHAMPIONS

January 5, 2017

The Simon Fraser University Pipe Band Presents:
Robert Burns Dinner and Fundraising Silent Auction – Saturday January 21, 2017

The pipes are calling you to join us at the Executive Plaza Hotel in Coquitlam, BC, on January 21st, 2017, to celebrate the life and work of Robert Burns - Scotland's iconic cultural voice. The evening is hosted by the six-time world champion Simon Fraser University Pipe Band in support of the Robert Malcolm Memorial (RMM) Pipe Band youth organization of which members are from your constituency.

The event will also feature an incredible silent auction showcasing our community's local business', crafts, products, and services. Tickets to this 5-star evening are priced at $80 with all proceeds supporting our youth education programs. We would love to have you join us.

For more information regarding ticket purchases please visit our EventBrite sales portal at <https://sfurobbieburns2017.eventbrite.com>. If you have questions, please email rmmrobbieburns@gmail.com or call Joanne Snow at 778-552-6618.

We look forward to an evening of Scottish fun and entertainment with you!

The SFU Pipe Band has garnered a reputation as one of the world's most accomplished pipe bands and a Canadian music icon. Having won six world championships and recorded albums in the world's most prestigious concert halls, the band continues to push the boundaries of the music world. For more information, visit www.sfupb.com and follow the band on social media.

The RMM organization is the SFU Pipe Band's junior organization comprised of four bands and beginner instructional program. The organization is celebrating twenty-three years of excellence and leadership in music and community involvement. The goal of RMM is to develop life skills in young people - dedication, perseverance, and teamwork, through piping and drumming.
